

The Audit Office of New South Wales is committed to informing and challenging government to improve outcomes for citizens, and helping parliament hold government accountable for its use of public resources.

Our services include financial audits, performance audits and special reports. For further information on our services visit the About the Audit Office section of our website.

Our corporate plan is how we go about achieving our services through core values and operational excellence. To view our current corporate plan, please visit the Our Corporate Plan section of our website.

Our Annual Report details our yearly activities driven by our corporate planning process and strategic goals. For our most recent annual reports, please visit the Our annual reports section of our website.

Our Information Guide explains who we are, what we do and how members of the public, community organisations, media and government agencies can interact with us.

We welcome any feedback on our service.

If you wish to suggest improvements to our services, please visit Provide feedback on our reports and services on our website.

If you wish to make a complaint about our services, please visit the Make a complaint about us section of our website.